This exceptional family residence is located in the prestigious part of Dee Why, known as Wingala, and is one of the few homes that directly adjoin the Wingala Nature Reserve and have a rear access road. The house offers breathtaking ocean views from all three floors and has been designed to provide comfortable and elegant living for multiple generations, domestic staff, and guests.

The middle floor is the ideal place for full-time living, featuring an open living space that connects the interior with the outdoor terrace, a gourmet kitchen, and a luxurious master bedroom with a private dressing room and an en-suite bathroom. The top floor will captivate you with its extensive living area, panoramic 180° ocean views, a manicured garden with a stone terrace, and a second kitchen, making this part of the house fully self-sufficient with four bedrooms and two bathrooms. The ground floor offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and additional living space that spreads around an enticing pool, creating a perfect retreat for teenagers or guests.

The entire house has been reconstructed to the highest standards and is located just 700 meters from Dee Why Beach and seaside restaurants. The living spaces are generous, equipped with a glazed gas fireplace, luxurious Australian black
